Proceedings: PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL RE-DESIGNATION OF PRODUCED DOCUMENTS AND REQUEST FOR FEES
PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR FEES AND COSTS

Case called. Counsel make their appearance. Court hears argument.

Plaintiff's motion to de-designate "Attorneys' Eyes Only" designation on documents is granted in part. Defendant is ordered to review carefully the documents produced and delete the "Attorneys' Eyes Only" designation from all documents that are not entitled to such a strict designation. Defendant must provide the de-designations to plaintiff within seven days of the date of the hearing. It is the Court's intent that only those documents whose disclosure to plaintiff could subject defendant to actual competitive harm or provide plaintiff with an actual competitive advantage be designated "Attorneys' Eyes Only."

Plaintiff's request for fees and costs is deferred.
